Turn the sound wave generator up at night sod aim it upstairs through the ceiling (actually mount it on the ceiling and direct the sound beam upwards). The guy will begin halucinating and seing 'ghosts' and sensing the presence of spirit beings and otherwise be haunted. He'll go mad and vacate within 3 months. [link to www.lowertheboom.org] 'Acoustic Trauma: Bioeffects of Sound': [link to www.youtube.com] crank this baby (looped) up on woofer and direct upwards at neighbor... and play from about 9pm until 4 am. Repeat until problem solved. 10 htz is good, too: [link to www.youtube.com] Here's another 7htz you can loop... [link to www.youtube.com] be sure you direct it up at his bedroom from 9pm until (critically) 4am. Between 3 and 4 am is the witching hour at which point you may wish to also include disharmonics: [link to www.youtube.com]

	Here's 8 hours of tinnitus you can beam: [link to www.youtube.com] Good luck -- you hit the right volume/frequency and you can drive him INSANE.
